

Dear INSCAPE Open Community Members,

INSCAPE is delighted to offer to their community members free participation at the Golden Award Summit in Montreux. (www.goldenawardmontreux.com)

From April 18 – 20, 2006 the Golden Award Summit will take place in Montreux presenting workshops and lectures by more than 20 world-class experts and global decision makers such as Thomas Burkhardt, Marketing Director, Hugo Boss Global Design & Global Delivery; Trine Olsen, European Marketing Manager, Masterfoods; Simon Silvester, Executive Planning Director, Young & Rubicam Europe; Lothaire Burg, Art Director, ARTE-TV; Barbara Aparo, Head of New Media, Fashion TV; Professors from Sofia, Prague, Vienna; Creative Directors from Stockholm, Zurich, Dubai, Managing Directors from Switzerland to India.

Furthermore visitors will be able to screen the latest trends in advertising and witness presentations of interactive story telling projects and the winning projects of the EUROPRIX Top Talent Award.

We wish you enjoyable days in Montreux.

More information about the Golden Award of Montreux including the program of the workshops can be find at www.goldenawardmontreux.com

If you are interested in this special offer and are looking for further information please contact: info@goldenawardmontreux.com

To receive the free participation festival package including 2 days housing in youth hostel with breakfast and lunch please mention in your email that you belong to the ICNM network.

Places are limited.